Lifetime Learning is a program for Aboriginal families to support parents to become their child's first teacher.

Sessions are hosted monthly by Anglicare at Griffith City Library.

INCLUDES:

- 'Ages and Stages' - a developmental screener for children from 5.5 months to 5 years, this helps identifies any potential developmental delays, and is a 3min parent-friendly screening process.
- 'Plum and Hats' screening - to check your child's listening and talking as many Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children have ear and hearing trouble. This occurs during the first few years of life and can have a lifelong impact on education outcomes, employment opportunities and social participation.
- Story Time provided by Griffith City Library
- Morning Tea and time to connect with other parents and families
