Disability Services

Anglicare's Disability Services have successfully piloted the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) in the ACT.

With over 30 years of industry experience in Disability Services, we would love to help you shape your ideal plan today!

Why should I choose Anglicare?

Anglicare has been a highly regarded disability services provider in ACT and NSW for more than 30 years.

Our staff undertake training to best support the needs of participants.

Zoe, Anglicare Client

“Anglicare is the place where Zoe is really encouraged and cared for... Anglicare helps Zoe live a fulfilling life, and the kindness and consideration they show to us is deeply appreciated.”

-Susan, Zoe's mother

About Anglicare

Anglicare aspires to be the leading provider of community services in our regions and through our advocacy and holistic care transform the lives of those in need.

Anglicare works to support the needs of individuals/participants and families in local communities.

It is our goal to work with you to ensure we help participants accomplish their dreams and aspirations, have autonomy and authority over their life, be safe and secure and participate in the community through meaningful relationships, employment, recreation, education and volunteering.

Over
140,000
people are accessing the NDIS in NSW.

What does the NDIS mean for you?

The NDIS means that your plan is all about YOU.

You will have more choice and control of what you require and who provides the services that suit your needs.

You will now be at the centre of the process, with you deciding which services you require.

Anglicare have a number of day centres across ACT and Southern NSW.
